

Series 950 Hidden Lens Sensor

Lens security with quick and easy interchangeability.

The Series 950 Hidden Lens Sensor delivers an unrivaled customer experience, allowing store staff to swap out lenses so customers can try a variety of lenses for a camera while keeping the lens safe and secure. The S950 Hidden Lens Sensor also provides robust alarming security for the lens, while eliminating the need for a large exterior sensor or zip tie. The S950 Hidden Lens Sensor was designed for retailers and brands with a DSLR lens bar or environments that secure high-end camera lenses with Smart Lock or behind locked cabinets.
